

A number of newspapers, magazines and news platforms have collapsed in the last 18 months, both, large and small. The surviving companies are either backed by large corporations or independent media companies like Alpha Southeast Asia. After 15 years, we remain committed to raising the profile of local banks, brokers, asset managers and FIs in Southeast Asia.

In light of Covid-19, most hotel venues are unable to host regional events. Therefore, we have three options we hope you will support to keep this series of awards commercially viable.
